

Camera Policy

Created by: Libby Griffin

Written: July 2025

Review by: July 2026

Adults that attend with their children are okay to take pictures, ensuring they are respecting the privacy of those around them. Should families request that their child is not in any photographs, families should make this clear to others in the session and families will need to respect these boundaries.

Liberty and volunteers will be taking pictures of sessions, gaining consent from families to post these on to their social media to help support the setting to gain further attendees.

